Code of Behaviour

Childrens Officer: Ned Dwane

Contact Details: childrensofficer.kildorrery.cork@gaa.ie

The Code of Behaviour addresses the minimum appropriate levels of behaviour, practices and conduct required from our Young Players, Coaches, Mentors, Supporters, Parents/Guardians, Referees and all club members.

Please Familiarise yourself with the Club Code of Behaviour (92 Page Document) which can be found at the following link:

The Club Code of Behaviour must be adhered to by all Coaches, Mentors, Players, Parents and Supporters. Any breaches of the clubs Code of Conduct will be addressed by the Club Executive and the Club Children's Officer.

Kildorrery GAA, Ladies Football and Camogie Club is committed to providing and maintaining an enjoyable and safe environment for all members particularly our young people.

Bullying

Kildorrery GAA has a zero tolerance approach towards bullying of any form, and all bullying incidents will be referred to the Children's Welfare & Protection Officer and Disciplinary Committee.

“.....Bullying can be defined as repeated aggression whether it is verbal, psychological or physical, conducted by an individual or group against others.”

It is the duty of all members of Kildorrery GAA, Ladies Football and Camogie Club (and the parents of members less than 18 years) to familiarise themselves with all the rules of the club and in particular to ensure that they have read and understand the Code of Behaviour and Code of Discipline.

I Certify that I have read and agree to abide by the Club Code of Discipline
